

Increasing protests and resistance political organizations have risen. Yet, there are no mechanisms that help facilitate the process of creating platforms. I think the process of get together or symposium can open for us a space for dialogue. As we are discussing for new ways providing us a forum for opposing groups to discuss and negotiate Blin issues in a peaceful structured environment- and that is a conference- get together forum.

Written by

Tuesday, 28 May 2013 19:36 - Last Updated Monday, 22 July 2013 15:06

---

Aim of the conference- Symposium: To address the demands of the Blin Community and create structured pact for transition. Blin today and tomorrow.

Implementation: Sequence of events: Legitimacy Prerequisites: Media Organizers: A committee consisting from various countries Participants: Members of existing political organizations Key social, religious, professional groups Academics International observers Activities: Drafting agenda, clarify issues Convey conferences goals to all participants Budget: Cost of symposium Preparation transportation Hotel- logistics Additional foreign assistance

Set -up time 2013-2014

Advantages Ease crisis Help develop a new work methods Conflict management mechanisms Conflict prevention forum.

1000 1000 1000 1000